

Morris Greene was born and grew up in Bakersville, which is in Mitchell County, North Carolina. After high school he joined the United States Air Force, met and married a girl from Ohio. They later had three children: Mrs. Rodney (Debbie) Snow, Ms. Angela G. Asherbraner and Timothy Adams Green. He was stationed in Europe and many places across the United States. His family was always with him wherever the Air Force had him stationed. Morris was awarded Good Conduct twice while in the Air Force, which was an honor. After twenty-three years he retired as Master Sergeant.

Since retiring from the Air force his hobbies have been having over 100 cattle, horses and dogs as well as gardening. His favorite hobby being fox hound hunting with twenty or more fox hounds at one time. He has camped in just about every county in North Carolina with his fox hound dogs, which means he has friends all over North Carolina. Now, as he travels across North Carolina, he will point out places he has camped with his dogs and friends.

Morris has taken professional voice lessons for about twelve years. He had the honor of being a member and singing in the Hickory Choral Society Choir (members of this choir had to take a test to become a member). He is a member of First Baptist Church in Hickory, where he sings in the Senior choir, The Mellordears and The Gospel Choirs.

At the age of 21 he registered as a Republican. Since moving to Alexander County, about 35 years ago, he has been a member of our Republican party, as a judge on election days for about 15 years. He attends military events on our court house lawn and monthly meetings in Taylorsville.

He has seven grandchildren, great-grandchildren and one great-great grandson, all of whom he is very proud of.

Morris McDonald Greene is very proud to be a Republican!
