

Darrell Robertson graduated Valedictorian of the Stony Point High School class of 1966. From Stony Point, he went on to North Carolina State University, where he graduated in 1970 with a degree in Civil Engineering with a construction option. Darrell is also a registered Professional Engineer and a registered Land Surveyor.

Darrell has been serving the Alexander County community for decades. He is a former Stony Point fireman where he also served as department treasurer. He was an active member of the Stony Point Ruritan Club and now the Stony Point Civic Club. Darrell was a former board member and past president of the Alexander Water Corporation. He served on the Blue Ribbon Advisory Committee for Alexander County Schools. He is a life long member of the Republican Party and has served numerous roles in the Alexander County Republican Party including the Executive Committee.

Darrell was elected to the office of Alexander County Commissioner in the fall of 1996, and he held the office from December 1996 through December 2013. He served as chairman several times during his tenure on the board of commissioners, and he also served on the finance committee. Darrell has served on numerous boards and committees: Department of Social Services Board, Recreation Department Committee, Western Piedmont Council of Governments and its various committees, Foothills Mental Health Board, and Smokey Mountain Mental Health Board and the various subcommittees of each.

Darrell Robertson has received the Citizen of the Month Award, and he was most recently awarded the Order of the Long Leaf Pine.

Darrell currently attends Stony Point Baptist Church. In June he and his wife, Dana will celebrate their 45th wedding anniversary. He has a daughter Elisabeth and son-in-law Ron Turner, and daughter Kristi. But, he is truly enamored with his two grandsons: Jackson who is 2½ and Brooks who is 6 months old.